LONG VERSION

Chamber Music Amici, the first resident company of the Richard E. Wildish Community Theater in Springfield, will give the second concert of its Inaugural Season at 7:30 pm, Monday, November 23, 2009, with a concert that includes J. C. Bach's Oboe Quartet, Victor Steinhardt's Tango for oboe and piano, Mendelssohn's Piano Trio #1, and a neo-boogie woogie, "Four on the Floor," by Libby Larsen. Core musicians Pilar Bradshaw (violin), Amy Goeser Kolb (oboe), Steven Pologe (cello), Sharon Schuman (violin), and Victor Steinhardt (piano), will be joined by guest musicians Tyler Abbott (bass) and Kathryn Lucktenberg (viola) for a fun, short, eclectic program that ends with a party on stage. There are three more concerts this season: February 22, April 19, and June 1. Tickets from $18 to $22 are available at 541-915-5352.

Education and Community Outreach

Thanks to Education Sponsors Isler CPA and the Chambers Family Foundation, students can use vouchers available at chambermusicamici.org to purchase $5 tickets. On Friday, November 20, Chamber Music Amici will also take J. C. Bach's Oboe Quartet to the students at Camas Ridge Elementary School in Eugene, from noon to 2:40 pm, for a series of special pre-concert performances in the music classes of David Adee. There will also be a free pre-concert performance of the Mendelssohn Piano Trio #1 at Cascade Manor at 65 W. 30th Avenue, on Saturday, November 21, at 4:30 pm.
