Long Version

Chamber Music Amici, the first resident company of the Richard E. Wildish Community Theater in Springfield, has been selling out concerts since 2009. It presents its fourth concert of the season at 7:30 pm, Monday, April 11 at the Wildish Theater. This concert features Mozart's rambunctious Piano Quartet in G minor, played by pianist Victor Steinhardt, violinist Sharon Schuman, cellist Steven Pologe, and guest violist Fritz Gearhart. This program also features Victor Steinhardt's "Three Pieces" for oboe, viola, and cello. Performing it will be oboist Amy Goeser Kolb, joined by guests Andrew Kolb on cello and Gearhart on viola. The concert ends with Paul Schonfield's exuberant "Carolina Reveille Quartet" for piano and strings, based on the song "Carolina in the Morning." Steinhardt, Pologe and Gearhart will be joined by violinist Pilar Bradshaw. After the music, which lasts only an hour, there will be a party on stage, with desserts from Excelsior Inn and Brindiamo Catering.
