Chamber Music Amici

Please come to our first Chamber Music Amici concert of the 2013-14 season! There are two performances: 7:30 pm, Monday, Oct. 28, in the Wildish Theater; and 7:00 pm, Tuesday, Oct. 29, at the home of Vera and Steve Kilston in Cottage Grove. This concert features Dohnanyi's piano quintet in C minor, his first published composition, which convinced Johannes Brahms to become his #1 fan. It also includes Mozart's duo for violin and viola K. 424, a tour de force for both instruments, and Henry Cowell's trio for violin, cello, and piano, "Four Combinations for Three Instruments." A teacher of composition, Cowell counted among his students George Gershwin and Burt Bacharach.

All five Amici Core Musicians will perform: pianist Victor Steinhardt, violinist Sharon Schuman, cellist Steve Pologe, violist Holland Phillips and violinist Pilar Bradshaw. At the Wildish Theater, you can meet the musicians afterwards at the party on stage. In Cottage Grove, you can sip wine beforehand and stroll the grounds.
