Welcome to Chamber Music Amici's 2022-2023 season

One of the great joys I have as Artistic Director of Chamber Music Amici is to curate programs of great variety and bring together so many phenomenal musical collaborations. Our opening, all-Baroque, concert will bring in fresh perspectives on both familiar and lesser known vocal chamber music by old masters. Revisiting some of our favorite Romantic composers, we will explore the vast musical universe that Schubert created during his short lifetime while also attempting to draw some interesting connections between Beethoven and Medtner.

In our all-Spanish program in April, we will introduce great treasures by prominent composers who charted that country's rich musical history. Finally, we will be joined by a remarkable violin guest in June, performing late-Romantic works by Benjamin Britten and Arthur Bliss, who responded to the grim realities of the First World War with their unyielding artistic spirit and inspiration. I hope you can join us in our exciting journey through such diverse program and impressive lineups of guest artists!
